

I am outraged that Michael Powell has held only one public hearing on the upcoming vote for further deregulation of our (the public!!!) airwaves. I am against this deregulation and the arrogance with which the public has been ignored.